Dear Reader:

The two worst cases in my office were up for trial -- back to back. Hence, the Monitor copy had to take a back seat to court deadlines. Both cases (one a capital case) were happily successful and at least those clients are now content. Too bad the MONITOR readers aren't! I'll try to make it up to you.

The things I wrote about in 1981-1982 are now coming into public view at a dizzying pace. Deliberately induced confusion is abounding. Those of you who followed my work on the New Age Movement know how hard and how viciously Pat Robertson fought me back in those early days. When PTL Club invited me on September 23, 1983, Pat Robertson's producer called them in an attempt to have the appearance cancelled. This man who claims that God speaks to him on a daily intimate basis made no serious public statements about the New Age Movement until 1989 (although peripheral statements were made) and then he claimed that he did not learn about the New Age Movement until two years earlier -- 1987? I find it astounding that God would tell him of somebody's minor ailments and not inform him of something of the gravity of the New Age Movement. More astoundingly still, Pat Robertson sometimes featured New Age influentials such as Jeremy Rifkin, John Naisbitt, "New Age Republican" Newt Gingrich (an open Taoist practitioner), and Amory Lovins on his shows.

Fascinatingly, he was celebrating International Week of Forgiveness -- an old-time Lucis Trust holiday. He told his audiences with a straight face that when the Bible said "every eye shall behold him" it meant on television." Personally, I don't think the true Christ will need the boob tube to make his "every eye shall behold Him" appearance. The Anti-Christ, however, will need it desperately! Interestingly, what Robertson said, did not match Scripture, but it matched page 575-576 of The Externalisation of the Hierarchy by Alice Ann Bailey and Peter LeMesurier's The Armageddon Script perfectly.

I was so concerned about Robertson's antics and the barely veiled occult principles featured in The Secret Kingdom that I videoed him daily for several years. I finally stopped in 1990 because I was afraid the tapes were going to collapse the foundations of our house from their sheer bulk and that I might <grin!> get hit in the head from falling videotapes of the 700 Club. Then Pat Robertson might go onstage and announce the sad news of my untimely demise by saying "Ladies and Gentlemen, a miracle from God!"

I am the only person I know not in public office who was attacked several times by name on the 700 Club.

Robertson came out with three books in succession with startling titles to those who have followed my work.

The first in this bizarre trilogy was called The Plan. The next was called The New Millennium. And now we have The New World Order. In that book he reveals he was a speaker for the Council on Foreign Relations (CFR) and proposed his own one world system, complete with the proposals the most dear to the hearts of mainstream New Agers, such as the Law of the Sea, "worldwide coordinated plans to counter terrorism," "cooperation to protect the world's air, water, vegetation, and wildlife," etc.

Of course, Robertson has never stopped calling for his International Year of Jubilee where all the world's debts would be cancelled -- including cancelling money, of course, and "starting over." The better, of course, to launch the new cashless society of Revelation 13! Robertson would now, under the very guise of fighting this agenda, convince you that he is the new champion against the New Age Movement. If you believe that, I have a bridge to sell you -- in Brooklyn or Massachusetts -- take your pick!

I really believe that Robertson is contemptuous of his Christian audience. The clues he drops as to his real posture are incredibly blatant. Take for example, the mysterious symbol he featured at the top of every single page in The New Millennium: a dot inside a circle!

Thanks for Explaining that symbol to us, Pat!.

I knew the symbol was occult, but just try to convince the average Christian that St. Pat Robertson would use such abominations!

As Jesus said: For by thy words thou shalt be justified, and by thy words thou shalt be condemned. Matthew 12:37 (King James Version)

Robertson may have been describing himself in The New World Order as he generically described on page 72 the type persecution he personally meted out to me when I tried to give the Christian community an honest warning about the New Age Movement -- just about everything in his statement is accurate but one thing -- I did name the names that I had! Maybe I only had the middle layer names and he knows a lot -- from inside? -- about the inner circle people I couldn't name!

> Authors who expose subversive secret organizations are usually ridiculed because, when asked for proof of the identity of participants in secret societies, they have to answer, "That is impossible, since the names are secret." But, invariably, there is a tiny secret core ring, a larger and less secret middle ring, then a much more public group.
> The Illuminati symbol, the dot within the circle, suggests this often-repeated pattern."

THE DOT WITHIN THE CIRCLE APPEARS ON EVERY PAGE OF The New Millennium -- BOLDLY AT THE TOP OF ALL PAGES, NEXT TO THE PAGE NUMBERS!!! Did he do it accidentally? I sincerely doubt it. I remind you, occultists signal one another in such fashion -- code words and signals! As I said, thanks for explaining that symbol for us, Pat!

ANIMAL RIGHTS MOVEMENT INCREASES IN SCOPE -- AND VIOLENCE

Undoubtedly, some thought me far-fetched in the early 80's, when I warned of the Animal Rights Movement . The entire spectrum of so-called "Green politics," including Animal Rights and Animal Liberation, is hardly new. It existed, with vigor in pre-World War II Germany. "Anti-vivisectionistism" was a cornerstone of Theosophy. As such these Movements were very visible about the time of Krishnamurti's planned debut and contributed substantially to Hitler's own world view.

As Dr. Anna Bramwell warned in her Harvard University Press Ecology in the 20th Century: A History, the "green" ethic of the Ecological/Environmental Movements was a "hidden agenda" in Hitler's Third Reich.

Richard Gilman supplied me with a June/July 1991 article from Midstream Magazine. It tells of a severe attack against medical research institutions, pharmaceutical manufacturers, and individual researchers. The writer says the campaign against medical research bears a distinctively anti-Jewish tone. The article by Sylvia Cohen, a Washington, D.C. watcher of extremist political movements and cults, notes:

> "The attack has been mounted by a curious mélange of 'coercive utopians' uniting a wide range of agitators: the Greens, new age groups and leftists fighting capitalism, which they consider incarnate in major university and government research institutions as well as in the pharmaceutical and cosmetics industries."

Author Cohen notes both the anti-Jewish and anti-Christian bias in this Movement. Clearly the Movement is more of an anti-people Movement than it is a pro-animal movement!

> "There is a distinct and explicit anti-Jewish tone: these Animal Rights activists apply the imagery drawn from the Holocaust to describe conventional farming, fishing and the killing of animals for food; they use the same imagery in harassing Jewish biomedical researchers and they direct recurrent attacks on kosher slaughter. ...
> "There is a disturbing intolerance in the Animal Rights movement towards those who disagree with its philosophy, and an unmistakable tinge of antipathy toward Judaism, Christianity and Islam. Its criticism of Christianity usually centers on Paul, Augustine, and Thomas Aquinas for their views on the relationship between man and beast. There is a sharper edge of intolerance toward Jews."

The article also reported the increasing violence of the Animal Rights activists. The violent wing of the Animal Rights Movement is the Animal Liberation Front. Ms. Cohen reports that "one acknowledged ALF leader admits the British section of the ALF learned bombmaking from the IRA." In Great Britain in 1989 alone there were 44 bombings and 422 violent incidents claimed by or attributed to the Animal Liberation Front.

Ms. Cohen, like Dr. Anna Bramwell, pointed to obvious parallels between the Animal Rights Movement and historical Nazism. Sylvia Cohen noted that one of the Third Reich's first actions was to outlaw research on animals.

I stand by my "controversial" stand that the New Age Movement is, among other distasteful things, a resurgence of Nazism with everything ugly that Nazism stood for. The Scriptures spoke of "the beast that was dead and came back to life." One would have to be blind, deaf, and dumb not to see the daily reminders of prophetic fulfillment of this in our daily press. Like the times of the Third Reich, euthanasia [Today, "Right to Die," tomorrow "Duty to Die!] is being aggressively promoted. This comes at the same time as the same social forces aggressively seek to outlaw animal research. Abortion is encouraged while dams are stopped because a snail darter is present. Housing construction is halted because of the presence of Indiana bats.

Clearly, the Animal Rights Movement is one of the most dangerous present manifestations of the New Age Movement. Equally clear is that our priorities are perverted -- what happens when we take a demonic perspective of history -- that we evolved as one more species of animals, rather than having been created in the image of a loving Heavenly Father!

PLEASE DON'T FORGET A PLANNED DECEPTION -- OR THE ARMAGEDDON SCRIPT!!

Too many Christians have a somewhat naive notion that end time events will be played out "fair and square." They will accept as "holy" everyone who claims he is "holy". They forget that there are people out there who the Bible described as "wolves in Sheep's clothing" and people who will "with covetousness, make merchandise of you." One of the saddest examples of this was Jimmy Swaggart. I was unimpressed by his protestations of repentance because of his immediate return to his public ministry without accepting the discipline of his church. Much more than the sexual immorality, I was appalled at his shameless statements on network television back during the Jim and Tammy Bakker scandals that he had never kissed anybody but Frances. A few short months later, it was to come to light that he had been cruising New Orleans red-light districts for prostitutes on the very days he appeared on television to condemn Jim Bakker. I am certainly no Oral Roberts fan, but just maybe the Lord really did speak through him that day on the PTL Club when he said, "[T]he Lord spoke to me and said 'People who live in glass houses shouldn't throw stones. You who are condemning your brother Jim and sister Tammy, are doing much worse things yourself.'" The press assumed that the "people who live in glass houses reference" was to Robert Schuller because the source of the information on the Bakkers had not yet been publicly revealed. Oral Roberts said, "no, it was Jimmy Swaggart." When asked about this by Ted Koppel on Nightline, Jimmy Swaggart said he wasn't worried because he knew Oral Roberts couldn't have received that from the Lord! Well, maybe this time he really did hear from the Lord! Certainly, Jimmy Swaggart was doing much worse things himself and lying about it -- a far worse sin than the sexual immorality.

What does all this have to do with A Planned Deception or The Armageddon Script? Just to say that we were taken before by those in high positions of visibility in the Christian community and we will no doubt be taken again!

The Armageddon Script, as readers of A Planned Deception will recall, is a book by a scholarly English occultist, Peter LeMesurier.[1] Those of you who watch Gene Scott will find LeMesurier's name familiar because Scott frequently praises his book The Great Pyramid Decoded. The Armageddon Script calls for staging a staged "second coming of Christ" with sufficient detail to convince the average Christian that this is Jesus returned and the average Jew that this indeed is their messiah. It calls for staging a simulated return of "Christ" from the Mt. of Olives in Jerusalem, complete with entry from the East Gate and rejoicing followers in shining robes accompanying this "messiah" who emerges after a major earthquake of proportions sufficient to "split the Mt. of Olives." LeMesurier concedes that adjustments may be needed in this "script" but that is essentially the script. For that reason alone, I watch with jaded view moves by Christians -- especially Christians such as Pat Robertson who say they are working for the establishment of the earthly reign of Christ right here on Planet Earth -- to build a Temple on the Mt. of Olives in Jerusalem. In a recent article in The Village Voice by Robert I. Friedman, it was revealed that Pat Robertson is actively behind a move to build "The Third Temple" in "the here and now."[2] I believe that such moves can only assist somebody seeking to exploit the Jewish and Christian communities to promote the anti-Christ -- that by their very nature, such moves cannot help Jesus Christ. "Woe unto the world because of offences! for it must needs be that offences come; but woe to that man by whom the offence cometh ..." clearly warned our Savior.[3]

I don't know about some of the actors in this scenario, but I have a pretty fair idea about one of the actors -- Pat Robertson -- one of whom's spiritual mentors, Cornelius Vanderbreggen, has close ties to Willis Carto's Spotlight. His other spiritual mentor, Harald Bredesen, interestingly enough, was invited to speak at Spiritualist Arthur Ford's home in Palm Beach Florida. Although Bredesen makes unsubstantiated claims that he was actually there fighting spiritualism, it is well known that Ford, an early advocate of Rev. Moon, did not invite anybody who was not a spiritualist. It is highly unlikely that he would have invited an unknown itinerant preacher who was in Florida to attend a family reunion to speak unless he was a "member of the club" so speak.4 Willis Carto is a known Nazi sympathizer and publisher of The Spotlight -- not to be confused with Al Dager's Media Spotlight! Robertson frequently parrots the Jew-baiting crowd's line that the world's economic problems are caused by the Rothschilds when in truth most of the world's powerful banking houses actively discriminate against Jewish employees and interests. At any rate, the article notes

> "One of Solomon's best-known boosters is Pat Robertson, a Republican candidate for president in 1988, whose 700 Club talk show is beamed by satellite to more than 200 U.S. TV stations and syndicated in 60 countries by the Christian Broadcasting Network ... Early this August, Robertson hosted Solomon for two days at his headquarters in Virginia Beach, Virginia. 'We considered him a very important guest," said Susan Norman, a spokesperson for Robertson. "Pat was very favorably impressed with him." Solomon was quartered in the governor's suite of a five-star hotel owned by CBN, and was assigned five armed bodyguards to follow him night and day."

What makes this all even more fascinating is Robertson's well documented claims that when the Bible says every eye shall behold him, it means ON TELEVISION -- just like Alice Bailey! Furthermore, he claims he has been called by God to telecast the "second coming" from the Mt. of Olives in Jerusalem.

Look, readers, the Bible says we shall meet our Lord IN the air, not ON the air! Robertson is preparing the telecast for the anti-Christ, not the true Christ. The interest in Jerusalem is for a prop for the anti-Christ -- not for the love of the Jews! Robertson clearly has interests that are anti-Judaic and he parrots a propaganda line that is also anti-Judaic. Truly, the deception could take in even the elect!

No more jury trials for awhile: See you in December, God Willing!

I had planned to include an article by Gary Blevins on the Cathedral of St. John the Divine which he was kind enough to submit to us at my request after seeing photographs of the roof of that Cathedral he included in his book The Final Warning. I am out of space, so it will be in our December Monitor.

Sincerely,

Constance E. Cumbey
